Detailed Action

1. This action is responsive to communication: Application, filed on: 10/08/2004

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

For claims 1-25, this claims are rejected because terms such as IDOR, etc, were not defined in the specification in a way that those skilled in the art will know and understand what those terms mean. Appropriate correction should be made.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Art Unit: 2168

4. Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

For claims 1-25, are all rejected because some of the terms such as RAZR, IDOR, DROR, are not defined in the claims. Appropriate correction should be made.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claim 22 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by K. Maruyama et al. (ACM, Nov, 1976, USA).

For claim 22, Maruyama teaches "a phase of instantaneous analysis of at least one object OR to be reorganized from among the objects liable to be reorganized, in particular databases, partitions and/or indexes to be reorganized, and estimation of the over cost associated with the level of disorganization of the object OR to be reorganized"(Paragraphs 2.1, 3.2 4.4, which includes teachings of excess cost due to disorganization) "a phase of instantaneous estimation of the cost of online reorganization as a function of the size of said object OR to be reorganized and of the level of disorganization of said object OR to be reorganized"(Paragraph 3.1, wherein cost of reorganizing the file is assumed to be a function of the size of the file at the reorganization) "and a phase of determination of the minimum disorganization threshold Ds of the object OR to be reorganized above which threshold online reorganization may be launched for that object OR and where applicable the effective launching of that "online" reorganization, the threshold Ds corresponding substantially to the minimum of the total of the estimated over cost of disorganization and the estimated cost of reorganization for the object OR concerned"(Paragraph 3.2, considering the excess cost due to disorganization)
